» Maintenant tous les doutes à cet égard sont levés. M. Isnardi, archéologue piémontais distingué, vient de trouver dans les archives de Génes la preuve authentique que Christophe Cotomb naquit à Colognetto, dans la république de Genes. Cette preuve consiste dans une lettre écrite par le gouvernement de cet étal, en date du 7 novembre 1586, à son ambassadeur Doria

à Madrid, laquelle contient le passage suivant :

« Christophe Colomb, de Colognetto, homme illustre, comme » vous devez le savoir, puisque vous vous trouvez en Espagne, » a, selon ce que nous avons appris, ordonné dans son testament » qu'il sera construit à Gênes une maison qui portera son nom, » et qu'une rente sera constituée pour la conservation de ce bà-» timent, etc., etc. :»

- Ce matin, en vertu de mandats décernés directement par M. le préfet de police, douze ou quinze ouvriers, fabricans de parapluies, ont été arrêtés par M. le commissaire de police Monnier. La prévention qui pèse sur eux est celle de coalition d'ouvriers.

On danse partout. Incessamment les places publiques seront travesties ensalons de bal. Qu'importent l'état, la patrie?... Que chacun s'amuse, fasse ses petites affaires, à la chambre des députés, à la bourse : celles du pays ne regardent personne. Cours de morale chez Musard, au raout de la rue Saint-Honoré, chez Paganini, dans les palais, dans les hôtels de la Chaussée-d'Antin et du faubourg Saint-Germain. Je vous le demande, que voulez-vous, monsieur, qu'il reste à dire à des gens frappés de vertige et que pour-rez-vous espérer d'eux? Le Charivari, dans ce déménagement de la raison et de la dignité humaine, est le seul écrit qui soit dans le vrai, le monument historique qui restera pour caractériser l'illustre époque où nous vivons.»

LA MÉTAPHYSI

GEOGRAPHIE. - Sur une ancienne carle naulique. -M. Tastu, qui avait été envoyé en Espagne par le gouvernement pour y recueillir des documens relatifs, les uns à l'histoire des provinces méridionales de la France, et les autres à la langue romane, adresse le calque d'une ancienne carte qu'il a trouvée à Mayorque, et une notice destinée à faire connaître cette carte, laquelle semble être un monument fort curieux.

Ou a avancé mal à propos, dit M. Tastu, que les Portugais avaient été les premiers inventeurs des cartes planes. Plusieurs écrivains, et entre autres Juan Andrès, en font honneur au prince don Henry de Portugal. Aujourd'hui, de nouveaux documens semblent prouver que cet honneur appartient aux Catalans mayorquins. M. Tastu cite à cet effet d'une part l'Atlas catalan de 1375, de l'autre la carte dont il adresse une copie, et qu'il a étudiée en détail pendant son séjour aux Baléares.

aux Baléares.

L'atlas de 1375, qui est à la bibliothèque du roi, décide à lui seul la priorité en faveur des Catalans mayorquins, car à cette époque Henry de Portugal était trop jeune pour pouvoir créer des académies nautiques, tandis qu'en 1341 Jaime F errer partait pour le Riude l'Or sur un uxer (vaisseau à trois mâts); or, ce Ferrer était un Mayorquin, et l'Atlas dont nous parlons est écrit en mayorquin, comme nous le verrons bientôt.

La seconde carte a été aussi faite à Mayorque, mais après plus d'un demi-siècle; elle appartenait à M. le comte de Montenegro, qui a permis à M. Tastu d'en prendre copie. Un seul écrivain jusqu'à présent en avait parlé; c'est le P. Ant. Raymundo Pasqual, qui l'avait vue chez le cardinal Despuig, oncle de M. de Montenegro; mais cet auteur avoue n'avoir pu réussir à le lire

Mayorques Dreigh en entier.

Une note écrite sur le revers du parchemin annonce que cette carte a appartenu à Améric-Vespuce qui l'avait achetée au prix de 130 ducats d'or. Une des inscriptions nombreuses que porte l'autre côté, fait savoir que l'auteur se nommait Gabriel de Valsequa. Toutes ces inscriptions sont, au dire du père Raymond Pasqual, juge compétent en pareilles matières, écrites en langue mayorquine, la plus pure qu'on parlât alors. La carte de 1375 est écrite exactement dans la même llangue, qui était d'ailleurs à peu près identique à Barcelone, à Valence, à Mayorque, et dans d'autres pays soumis à la couronne d'Aragon.

En m'occupant de l'Atlas de 1375, dit M. Tastu, j'avais pensé que dans une des bordures qui semblent seulement faire ornement, l'artiste avait écrit quelques paroles arabes; aujourd'hui j'en suis convaincu en voyant la carte de 1439, où une inscription arabe suit le filet qui forme l'encadrement. * ic auch din "

Sous le rapport de l'art, l'Atlas de 1375 ne peut pas être comparé à la carte de 1439; celle-ci est un chefd'œuvre.

La carte et la note sont renvoyées à l'examen d'une commission composée de MM. Beautems-Beaupré, Freycinet et Puissant, commission à laquelle l'académie des inscriptions et helles-lettres sera invitée à adioindre quelques-uns de ses membres.
